

Surfin' for Funds

Those working in the best interests of youngsters always are on the look out for funding opportunities. The picture is constantly changing. We have moved into an era of creative financing. Fortunately, the Internet now provides a major tool for identifying many funding opportunities and offers access to helpful documents and organizations that share expertise related to relevant financial strategies.

This document is meant to help as you use the Internet to learn about what is available at the moment. It is meant to be a general do-it-yourself aid and as a supplement to seeking specific technical assistance from centers such as ours. (If you are not personally connected to the Internet, hopefully you have access through your work site, local libraries, or a friend.)

I. Accessing Information through Sites Compiling Information on Funding Opportunities

Grants.Gov - <http://www.grants.gov>

See the electronic storefront for Federal Grants at the above site.

Notices of Funding Availability (NOFAs) are announcements that appear in the Federal Register, printed each business day by the United States government, inviting applications for Federal grant programs. This page allows you to generate a customized listing of NOFAs.

eSchool News Technology Solutions Center - <http://www.eschoolnews.com/funding/>

Information on up-to-the minute grant programs, funding sources., and technology fund.

Federal Register - <https://www.federalregister.gov/>

The Federal Register is the "main" resource listing federal funding opportunities. It is published Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays. The current year's Federal Register database is updated daily by 6 a.m. Documents are available as ASCII text and Adobe Acrobat Portable Document Format (PDF) files.

GrantsAlert - <http://www.grantsalert.com/>

GrantsAlert is a website designed to help in searching for grants and funding opportunities for organizations, schools, districts and other agencies.

National Center for Mental Health Promotion and Youth Violence Prevention- <http://www.promoteprevent.org/>

A resource page containing links to selected publications, websites, online events, and other resources.

Snapshot from SAMHSA - <http://www.samhsa.gov>

Snapshot is a new series dedicated to simplifying and amplifying information about SAMHSA's grant programs.

The Foundation Center - <http://www.foundationcenter.org/>

The mission of the Foundation Center is to foster public understanding of the foundation field by collecting, organizing, analyzing, and disseminating information on foundations, corporate giving, and related subjects. It publishes the Philanthropy News Digest, a weekly listing of requests for proposals (RFPs) from U.S. grantmakers. (See - <http://www.foundationcenter.org/pnd/rfp/>)

American Psychological Association - <http://www.apa.org>

Go to Search; type in Grants. Provides a useful summary listing of many funding opportunities.

II. Major Public Funding Agencies

Department of Health and Human Services

On SAMHSA's grant page (<http://www.samhsa.gov/grants/>), you will find information on grants from the Center for Mental Health Services, the Center for Substance Abuse Prevention, and the Center for Substance Abuse Treatment.

On NIMH's grant page (<http://www.nimh.nih.gov/funding/index.shtml>), you will find program announcements and requests for application.
